

Kigali, 30 OCT 2017

No: 12.06/0490/2017

To Whom It May Concern

Reference is made to the consultation document dated 9th August 2017 which outlined in detail the proposal for revision of airport service fee and aviation security charges and subsequent consultative meetings held with all airlines operating at Kigali International Airport and IATA (International Air Transport Association), in which we agreed on revision of the above mentioned charges.

This notice serves to inform you that with effect from 1st December 2017, airport service fee and aviation security charge will be revised to 40 US$ and 10 US$ respectively for each Domestic and International departing passenger aged over 2 years.

This charge will be collected by airlines or operators, at the point of sale of the relevant flight ticket, and remitted to the RCAA in accordance with applicable arrangements.

We appreciate our continued partnership, and assure you of our continued support.

Sincerely,

Silas UDAHEMUKU
Director General
Rwanda Civil Aviation Authority
